

I'm Into You

Music: "Dig" by Miles Davis

Lyric: Ann Malcolm

A

Hey, you can dig a lot of things but right now I guess
I'm into you.

Last week when someone asked me about digging,
I had thought 'bout gardening too.

But digging far too much can one day find me six feet under,

And baby you know what I mean. Oh!

B

Hey you can dig a lot of things but like I said now
I'm into you.

It could be that I just can't see the forest, 'cause the Trees are blinding me!

And by the way, I thought that gardening was a last resort
When you get through digging.

I've got another garden in mind.

I hope you will dig it too!
